It's mid-February. New Year's was just a few weeks ago. Did you make any resolutions for the upcoming year? Eat healthier? Go to the gym? Get organized? Learn something new? Well, for the last one on learning something new, we can help you there – and for free!

If you currently run (or are thinking of running) XenApp or XenDesktop – join us for the upcoming “What's New with Citrix XenApp and XenDesktop Q1 2018 Update” webinar on February 21st, 2018. This wildly popular series is targeted for Q1 and Q3 each year with the goal of sharing the latest features, offerings, partnerships, programs and promotions. This time around, we have exciting updates on HDX user experience enhancements, monitoring and analytics capabilities and much more. Remember to come with your questions as we'll have a team of Citrix experts on-hand to answer them. Don't delay and register for the webinar today as space is limited. Two convenient time slots are available so pick the one that works best for you.
